

SIMULATION & PROBLEM SOLVING

WHAT YOU TAKE HOME WITH YOU :

- Promotion of a team work
- Leadership's practise
- Problem solving
- Briefing techniques

INVESTIGATION, TAKING DECISIONS, TEAMWORK

Our proposals are based on real experiences made by professionals coming from areas apparently far from business : researchers, scientists, security experts, in any case always charismatic characters compelled by their profession to take important decisions for the group. Our task is to create unusual atmospheres and to enable participants to imagine fantastic situations useful for the comparison with the others and the analysis of one's role. If these activities have a great aggregation power and make the overcoming of differences easier.
